

Bringing Life to the Practice of Law

Debby Stone, JD, CPCC, PCC

Debby Stone is a former practicing attorney, a certified, accredited coach, and co-founder of Corner Office Coaching, a professional coaching and consulting company that serves the legal community. Debby is also an engaging, thought-provoking speaker, and she frequently facilitates retreats and workshops.

Prior to becoming a coach in 2002, Debby spent over 16 years practicing law, both at a large Atlanta firm and in her own firm, Stone Law Associates, Inc. Debby also has experience working as a management consultant at Bain & Company. Now, in her coaching, speaking and facilitating, Debby combines her coach training, extensive experience practicing law, and entrepreneurial creativity to help her clients attain their goals more quickly and easily.

Education and Credentials:

- Professional Certified Coach, International Coach Federation, 2008
- Graduate, Organization and Relationship Systems Coach Training, The Center for Right Relationship, 2007
- Certified Professional Co-Active Coach, The Coaches Training Institute, 2004
- Juris Doctorate with High Honors, Duke University School of Law, 1989
- A. B. in Public Policy, Magna Cum Laude, Duke University, 1984

Select Affiliations and Honors:

- Georgia Coach Association, Past President
- ProWIN Advisory Board, Founding Member
- ProWIN Professional Coaching Committee, Co-Founder and Co-Chair
- ABWA Phenomenal Woman of North Fulton Award Winner
- Georgia Association for Women Lawyers, Member

In addition to contributing her time to a number of non-profit organizations, Debby enjoys making jewelry and reading novels. She is also an avid Duke basketball fan. Debby lives in Alpharetta, Georgia, a suburb of Atlanta, and has a seventeen year old son.

www.cornerofficecoaching.com