

Bringing Life to the Practice of Law

Laura Biering, MM, CPCC, PCC

Laura Biering is a certified, accredited coach, and co-founder of Corner Office Coaching, a professional coaching and consulting company that serves lawyers and their firms. Laura is also a sought-after speaker and facilitator of workshops and retreats for individuals, boards and teams.

Prior to becoming a coach, Laura spent over 15 years in various law firms, most recently at a large firm in Atlanta, in recruiting and professional development. Prior to that, Laura was an opera singer. Now, through coaching, speaking and other creative endeavors, Laura helps her clients - individuals, partners and teams - to consciously create the outcomes they desire, in work and in the rest of life.

Education and Credentials:

- Professional Certified Coach, International Coach Federation, 2008
- Graduate, Organization and Relationship Systems Coach Training, The Center for Right Relationship, 2007
- Authorized Facilitator, Team Diagnostic Assessment, Team Coaching International, 2007
- Certified Co-Active Coach, The Coaches Training Institute, 2002
- Certified Facilitator, The Artist's Way at Work, 2002
- Certified Paralegal, with honors, National Center for Paralegal Training, 1992
- Bachelor and Master of Music (Vocal Performance), Rice University, 1988

Select Affiliations and Honors:

- Georgia Coach Association, member, past board member
- The Complete Lawyer, Senior Editor and Contributing Writer
- ProWIN Member, Co-Founder and Co-Chair of the Professional Coaching Committee
- Decatur Business Association of Decatur, member
- Young Professionals of Decatur, former member, Business .01 Grant Service Provider

In addition to being a life-long learner, Laura enjoys supporting and participating in the arts, retreating at her farm in Southeast Georgia, and spending time with her wonderful friends and adorable four-legged children.

www.cornerofficecoaching.com